Home Grown Terror
American Muslims Learn to Slit Throats--in N.Y.??!

You gotta love these terrorists! They make a video for the world to see , and tell us that the majority of America are Muslims--WITHOUT A DOUBT!

But I ask my fellow Americans tonight to take a closer look at the video: you'll see something that I bet you skipped over. The leaders of the Muslim terrorists, bent on vanquishing America, are home-grown blacks. In fact, I could've sworn that Muhammad character was an ex-teacher buddy of mine, constantly griping to me about how the Whites must be made to pay...(for what? to whom?which Whites?)

I'm waiting for Rev. Al Sharpton to call these thugs and punks, "black interlopers!"

Looking closely at the leaders of the female Jihaddists, again, you'll see a black woman marching in front. These are not Blacks from Mogadishu or Somalia, brought in to "foment" the local brothers. Nor are they African nationalists, or radical separatists, here to stoke revolution.

No, I'll tell you who these miscreants are: THEY'RE MY FORMER STUDENTS!

Like a lone voice, crying out in the desert, I have put the uncomfortable and painful questions to my fellow teachers, both here locally in Los Angeles, and around the nation. The query is always the same: what do you think will happen when the Black "achievement gap", drop-out rates, incarceration rates, rate of out-of-wedlock babies, gang affiliation, reach critical mass? How long before those kids you "passed" with a "D" grade, letting them "walk" at graduation, will become a threat to the very fabric of this nation? How will all the ridiculous, desperate, half-baked measures such as "midnight basketball" and millions thrown at "multi-cultural ism" and self-esteem classes fend off a bitter youth, tired of the hegemony of White America, willing to make the ultimate statement against an impotent White educational system that instead of TEACHING, has offended for so long the senses of young Blacks with drivel and spew about "diversity" and "cultural sensitivity?"

And now, at this late hour, as I and many shocked teachers watch our former students take up arms and learn a different "curricula" designed to refine ways of separating us from our heads, now it is too late to say, OOPS, SORRY!

This is the greatest crime every committed against our country. Herein lies the basis for the total destruction of our society, at every level. The toxic elixir doled out by America's teachers, the racial pandering and condescension has been so thoroughly pervasive, it has created its own justification and bureaucracy, even if it will absolutely kill us! Not one teacher has the guts to say: White guilt is responsible for this new American holocaust about to be sprung from our TVs to our very laps.

What's more insidious is that White America cannot save itself, and thereby must plunge all of America into the abyss. We simply have no more teachers or administrators with the guts and patriotic fortitude to tell it like it is! THOSE THAT WERE ABLE TO SUCK IT UP AND, AND WITH THEIR CAREERS ON THE LINE, SAY IT LIKE IT IS, HAVE ALL BEEN FIRED! Let's assume I'm wrong, where are these "educrats" with the temerity to admit that our foundation of education has been a lie and a fraud, abetting the destruction of ours and Western culture?

If your blood doesn't curdle after seeing the video of these Black Americans playing Jihad at one of the MANY Jihad training camps here in OUR HEARTLAND, then you are the problem and I am asking you to keep your mouth shut, and your opinions to yourself. EITHER LEAD, FOLLOW, OR GET THE HELL OUT OF THE WAY!

For those who truly do believe that we have nowhere to go, no leftist shangrilas "over there" to abscond to, no more "can you imagine" tunes to listen to, then there is a bitter pill that I am asking our fellow Americans--OF ALL COLORS AND CREEDS--to swallow, to get over it, to divest ourselves of our illusions about race and "diversity."

If we are to survive here in America, we must:

--train elite groups of educators that are non-white, superteachers and administrators, versed in Americana, steeped in patriotism, modern-day inner city heroes, afraid of nothing but the Creator of Heaven and Earth, to totally remake our schools into safe, academically rigorous centers of excellence and leadership

--fire and disband ALL teachers unions

--assign some version of ROTC to every school across the land (those of us veterans that have been thoroughly trained with weapons, are quite satiated and don't feel the need to blow away our fellow Americans for the sake of being "heavy on the trigger")

--require MANDATORY pledge of allegiance by all students and staff, FACING THE FLAG, STANDING AT ATTENTION

--instead of the usual bi-lingual bilge and hokus pokus announcements, require a two-minute reading from excerpts of our founding fathers, replete with patriotic and nationalistic arousing passages designed to let our students know, constantly, upon whose shoulders they stand. OUR STUDENTS SIMPLY HAVE NO CLUE ABOUT WHERE THEY ARE OR WHAT THEY'RE DOING! We have raised them in a socialistic incubator, where victimization is standard and the weaker or more effeminate, the better.

--require a crash course on physical fitness. I don't mean goofing off on the football field with Frisbees. Our students need to have rigorous and regular training. The fires of Hell that burn in these kids through the deluge of Rap and total titillation from sexual innuendo in our corrupted media, must be met head on through hard work and honest sweat.

--separate boys from girls. Period. When the school starts to become an excellent showcase about American values and altruism, then that can be modified.

--uniforms mandatory. When everyone is getting a 3.0 GPA, then we can talk about "doing your own thing."

--All staff must create a whole new image of professionalism. Suits and ties, dresses, are just the fare for those wayfaring youth without a vision of success. Since we're teaching excellence and professionalism, THEN WE MUST SET AN EXAMPLE.

--Nobody graduates unless they've done several hundred hours of community service. We created this "ME-FIRST MONSTER." Now we must rein it in.

For those students that cannot, or will not abide by the above, then there's "Tent City." After they've felonized or otherwise lost their privilege to live in society, they can remain in the desert, housed with simple army tents, surrounded by barbed wire. Since they didn't learn in school and showed their disdain for the taxpayers who have been nursing them along at a rate of $12,000/year, essentially ripping off the taxpayers, then they will be forced to accept real consequences for their decision to rape, pillage, burglarize, or otherwise jeopardize their fellow citizens. There, with enough food to stay alive, they'll be taught how to be a man or young lady, with skills to abet their re-introduction to society. If they become tired of the spartan conditions therein, then that will be their motivation to never return.

Sounds too draconian? Then you are the very liberal who brought this Hell of Jihad to our shores!

Seems to "fantastic" to implement? Then you are the bureaucrat that, so indifferently, shrugged while a whole army of youth "got by" through failing and goofing off, all on the taxpayers' dime!

For twenty two years I have taught at "inner city" schools. Each time I attempted to raise the "academic bar", I was browbeaten by my colleagues of "color."

"Rabbi," they would condescendingly whine, "this is an inner city school. You can't expect them to behave or perform at the level you're requiring of them. You have to tone it down, chill out a bit", was the mantra.

And now, behold, our own brand of "home-grown terror." Life is cyclical. Just like the 60's evolved from the Eisenhower years, so too will our country come to its senses with a battle plan to hold our youth accountable in carrying down the dream and vision of our founding fathers. We will either turn the corner on this absolute travesty in inculcating our young people, or we shall stop being America. The time is spent. The illusions of the past, the vapid and seditious present program offered by those socialist molders of false utopias, have come to a grinding halt with Jihad in our land. Just as they are convinced of their victory and subjugation of our land, so too must we gird our loins with the fire and revolutionary spirit so long ago buried in the musty and fictitious halls of academia.
